

THIRTEENTH START PROVES WATERLOO FOR THE GREAT HORSE, MORVICH. Whiskaway, leading Morvich and the field at the Aqueduct race track, in New York, on Saturday. Morvich, previously unbeaten, finished eight lengths behind the winner.

THE WINNING FOUR. Pennsylvania Barge Club defeated the Malta Boat Club in the race for junior four-oared gigs SEEN AT THE SCHUYLKILL NAVY REGATTA ON SATURDAY.

PREPARED FOR AN EMERGENCY. Park Guard Frank Schober was ready to show his rowing ability.

JOHN BLESSING, JR., representing Undine Club, romped away with first honors in the association senior singles.

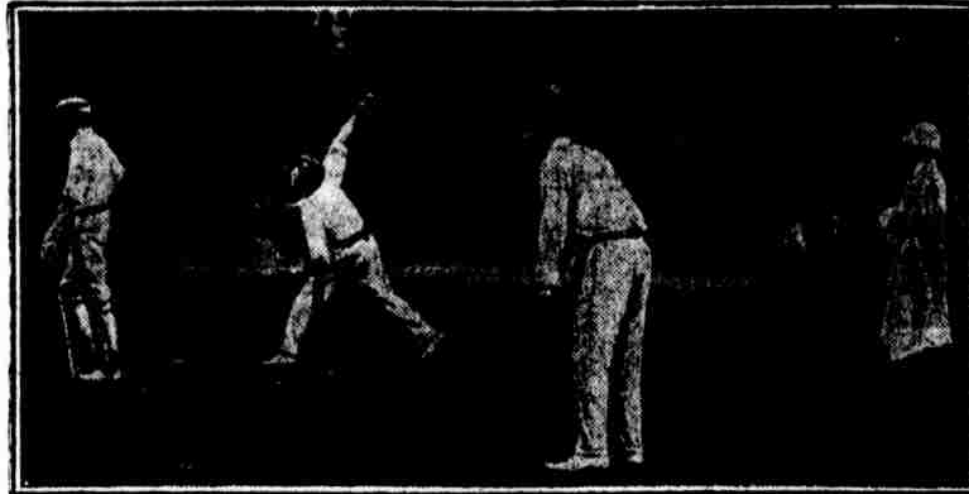

HE HAS RESIGNED. Shiro Tsurusaki, for twenty years steward on the presidential yacht, Mayflower.

REFEREE TAUNTON HAD A BUSY DAY WHEN FRANKFORD CRICKETERS JUMPED INTO FIRST PLACE. They played Germantown Cricket Club on Saturday in the Halifax Cup competition, winning a close and interesting game. The score was 96 to 90.

OSBORNE MIDDLETON, wicketkeeper for Germantown.

GLIMPSE OF THE CRICKET GROUNDS

CAN YOU JUMP SEVEN FEET FOUR INCHES? That's the distance cleared by Anne Kapalczenek as New York girls showed their ability in track and field events.

GALLI CURCI in a strawberry patch. Yes, that's right. Her husband, Homer Samuel, has a small farm near Minneapolis.

MIA MAY, German movie star, will come here to study American movie methods.

THE FISHER GIRL, with her turned-up pantaloons. Lillian Rich, movie star, ready and willing to make a big haul.

FATHER-IN-LAW AND SON-IN-LAW. King Ferdinand, of Rumania (left), and King Alexandria, of Jugo-Slavia, driving through Belgrade.

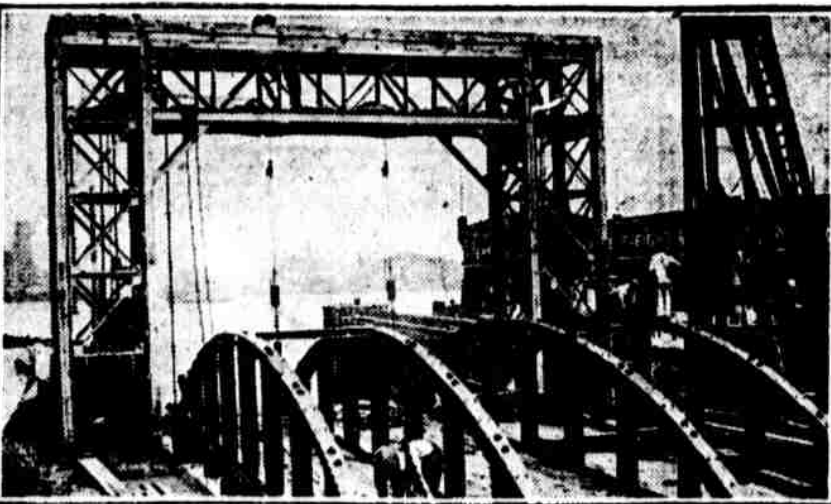

THE DUKE OF YORK, of England, and Princess Helene, a sister-in-law of the bride, leaving the Royal yacht.

THEY CALL IT OUTDOOR BILLIARDS. J. C. Davis, a busy member of the Quaker City Roque Club. He plays roque at Strawberry Mansion, where many exhibit their skill.

ALFRED EUGENE KASTNER, of West Point, and ALBERT VINCENT KASTNER, of Annapolis. TWIN BOYS REPRESENT NAVY AND ARMY. The sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kastner, of Flushing, L. I., 1922 graduates.

ONE OF THE NEW SLIPS built by the Pennsylvania Railroad at the Market Street Ferries. This one will soon be placed in service.

MRS. LINDLEY M. GARRISON leaves for two months' tour of France and England.

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE BUILDING. One of the structures in the group which represented the States of the Union during the Centennial. Send your old Philadelphia photographs to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

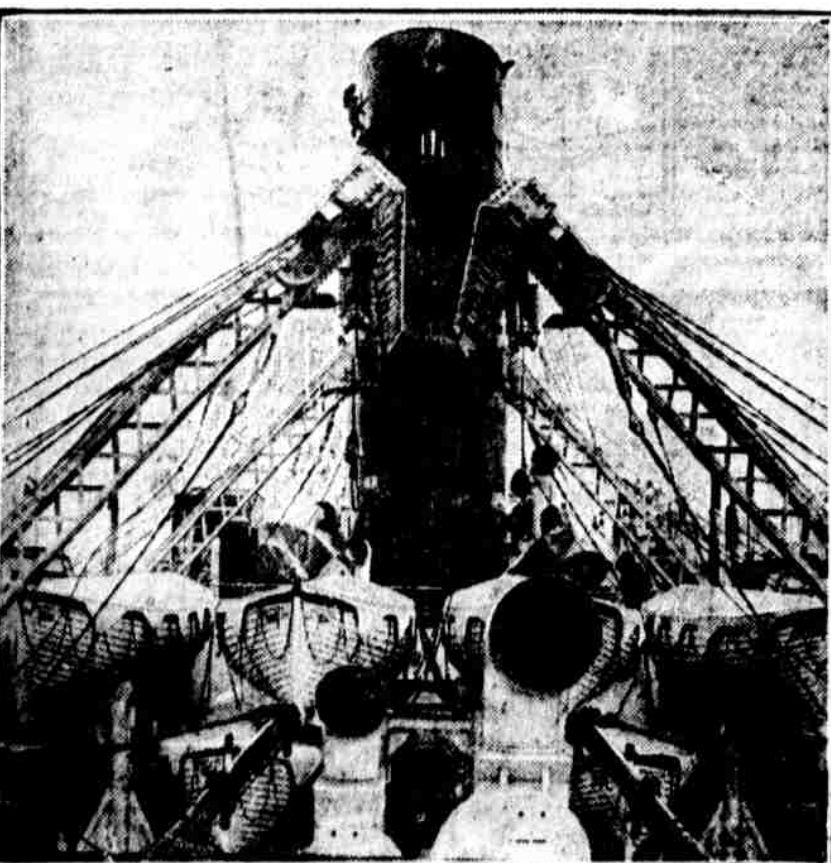

IN THE PHILADELPHIA CRICKET CLUB tennis tourney, Mrs. C. Krumpholtz played in singles and doubles.

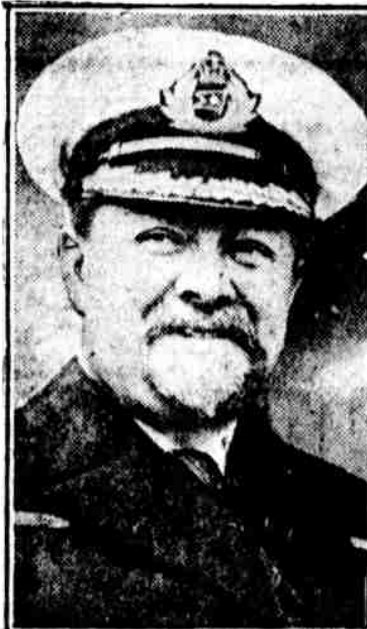

RETURNS HOME. Kingdon Gould, a passenger on the S. S. Berengaria.

NEW YORK OFFICIALS have adopted finger printing for permanent identification for babies.

LIFE-SAVING APPARATUS. The twelve boats in this nest can be placed in the water by the derricks in fast time. WHITE STAR LINER PITTSBURGH is here on maiden voyage. The boat tied up at Pier 53 South Mayor Magee, of Pittsburgh, will speak at a dinner aboard the ship tomorrow.

THE SKIPPER. He is Captain Jones.

J. WILLET BRUCE is the chief engineer.

ROBERT E. TRACY talks of discussion groups in Editorial Page interview.

GENERAL GASTON GASSOUIN, former chief of staff of French Army, placed wreath on grave of unknown soldier, in Washington.

W. THORPE, bowler, BRITISH SENIORS AND BRITISH JUNIORS played cricket on the Haines Field, at Olney, yesterday. Many men who have played on English and Scotch teams were in the line-ups.

GEORGE COX still a good batter.